

25th Sunday Of The Year - 24th September 2023

Never Too Late

Have you ever been in the situation where you have been doing something for what seems like forever and someone new comes along to help. They are heaped with praise, whereas you feel that you are treated like part of the furniture. How did it make you feel? Frustrated that you were being ignored and undervalued perhaps. Or did you feel elated that someone had come along to help?

Like the workers called first, maybe our natural tendency would be to feel resentment when someone who did the job for a lot shorter time, is given the same reward as us. However, think of the owner of the field. His harvest has been safely gathered in. He will be elated. He will want to reward those who helped him. He may well treat everyone the same.

The kingdom of heaven isn't the same as the world of work though. You don't get more or better heavenly reward depending on how much effort you have put in. It is all or nothing.

So, today our gospel is telling us to rejoice with Jesus when people turn to him. We are to welcome them with joy in our hearts. Those of us who have had the privilege of walking with Him from an early age are called upon to share with others.

Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ, from your abundant grace, pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.

As we build on the deep foundations of faith laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands, by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth: to give living witness to your love, and to your compassion and hope for our world.

We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament, I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you, never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.'

Prayer For Ukraine

O God in this time of violence. We call you to draw near.

Draw near to the people of Ukraine.

Draw near to the terrified children.

Draw near to the terrified parents.

Draw near to those who have nowhere to go.

Draw near to the elderly, the infirm,
the disabled, the displaced, the orphans.

Draw near to the care givers and aid workers.

Draw near to the helpers.

Draw near. Draw near. Draw near.

In this time of violence-Draw near.

Jesus taught us that the diabolical evil of violence is answered with the weapons of God, with prayer and fasting.
May the Queen of Peace preserve the world from the madness of war.
