

7th Sunday of Easter - 12th May 2024

Commitment, Rejecting Evil, and Living Lives of Service

There are a number of major themes which run through our readings this weekend. The first is concerned with apostolic continuity and witness. In our first reading, Peter explains the need to replace Judas to maintain the twelve apostles. Matthias is chosen by casting lots, fulfilling his role as a witness to Jesus' resurrection.

The second theme is about God's love and our response to it. John speaks about this in our second reading. Since God's love for us is profound, we are called to love each other deeply. By loving one another, God's presence is affirmed within us, perfecting his love through our actions.

In our Gospel reading, the main theme is concerned with unity and protection in God's name. Jesus prays for his disciples' protection through God's name, desiring their unity as he and the Father are united. He emphasises their sanctification and separation from worldly values.

In summary, this week's focus can be on commitment, rejecting evil, and living lives of service. We belong to God, not the world, and our actions reflect this belonging. Let's consider our relationships with God, the world, and the various groups we are part of.

Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ, from your abundant grace, pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.
As we build on the deep foundations of faith
laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands, by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede
may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth:
to give living witness to your love,
and to your compassion and hope for our world.
We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen'

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament, I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you, never permit me to be separated from you. Amen'

A Prayer for Peace by Pope John Paul II

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of the victims of all wars and violence among individuals and nations.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children who suffer and will suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war.

Hear my voice when I beg you to install into the hearts of all human beings the wisdom of peace, the strength of justice, and the joy of fellowship.

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes in every country and in every period of history who do not want war are are ready to walk the road of peace.

Hear my voice and grant insight and strength so that we may always respond to hatred with love, to injustice with total dedication to justice, to need with the sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my voice and grant unto the world Your everlasting peace. Amen'
