

The Most Holy Trinity Sunday - 26th May 2024

The Community of the Trinity

The Holy Trinity is not a puzzle, which might be “solved” like a Rubik’s Cube or a Sudoku or Crossword in your newspaper. Rather, the Trinity is about community, a living community which we are invited to respond to with our hearts and not try to solve with our minds. Although much has been written about the Trinity by theologians and academics the Trinity is something we have to experience.

Because God is not a remote, lonely God, watching us with a critical eye miles and miles away in heaven. The Christian God is a community of love. This community consists of three distinct persons, the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit. One God in three persons joined in love, who want to share their love with us.

We Christians should strive for the kind of community we find in the Holy Trinity. Why? Because God in three persons is community and we are created in God’s image.

Christians aren’t meant to live in isolation. Right from the beginning God’s will was that we be a community, a Church of brothers and sisters, in the image of the Trinity. In any community there may be differences. Differences can actually enrich, but divisions are not good, as there are no divisions between Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.

We, of course, are human and fall short of the ideal. But we must never stop trying. If Jesus asks us to build the community of the Church, as he does in today’s gospel, it is because he is always with us to make it happen.

Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ, from your abundant grace, pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.
As we build on the deep foundations of faith
laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands, by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede
may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth:
to give living witness to your love,
and to your compassion and hope for our world.
We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen'

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament, I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you, never permit me to be separated from you. Amen'

A Prayer for Peace by Pope John Paul II

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of the victims of all wars and violence among individuals and nations.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children who suffer and will suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war.

Hear my voice when I beg you to install into the hearts of all human beings the wisdom of peace, the strength of justice, and the joy of fellowship.

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes in every country and in every period of history who do not want war are are ready to walk the road of peace.

Hear my voice and grant insight and strength so that we may always respond to hatred with love, to injustice with total dedication to justice, to need with the sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my voice and grant unto the world Your everlasting peace. Amen'
