

Blessed in the Eyes of God

Today's gospel reading is from the beginning of the Sermon on the Mount, from the Gospel of Matthew.

The basic theme of the Sermon on the Mount is that our outward actions need to be a reflection of the attitudes inside us. To be a disciple of the Lord, we first need to adopt those attitudes and those ways of thinking. And so, Jesus presents us with the Beatitudes.

We have heard the Beatitudes many times, perhaps so many times that we can pass over their meaning. We might think of them as idealistic goals, but actually they are realistic demands. They list the qualities Christ wishes to see in his followers, qualities which can be seen in his own life.

Even just a glimpse of the Beatitudes shows that they are a reversal of the usual standards of the world. At first it may feel difficult for us to go against the ways of the world. But the Beatitudes are within the reach of human beings, with a little help from the Lord, of course.

When we seriously adopt the Beatitudes, they become the signs of a true disciple of Christ. They make us rich in the eyes of God. They open our minds and hearts to a new way of seeing and judging. They give us a whole new set of bearings.

A person who lives according to the Beatitudes is already living in the kingdom of heaven. Eternal life at the end of an earthly life will merely be the full blossoming of a plant that is green and full of life.

Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ, from your abundant grace, pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.

*As we build on the deep foundations of faith
laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands,*

*by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede
may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth:*

*to give living witness to your love,
and to your compassion and hope for our world.*

We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen'

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament, I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you, never permit me to be separated from you. Amen'

A Prayer for Peace by Pope John Paul II

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of the victims of all wars and violence among individuals and nations.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children who suffer and will suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war.

Hear my voice when I beg you to install into the hearts of all human beings the wisdom of peace, the strength of justice, and the joy of fellowship.

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes in every country and in every period of history who do not want war are ready to walk the road of peace.

Hear my voice and grant insight and strength so that we may always respond to hatred with love, to injustice with total dedication to justice, to need with the sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my voice and grant unto the world Your everlasting peace. Amen'
