Out Of The Box

Have you ever been in a conversation that has led you along the lines of saying: "What the church teaches is this, and that is what we should be doing ..." You have then been met by a response like: "That's got nothing to do with the church, what do they know..." To take a few hot topics, it might be about immigration, workers' rights, the wars taking place across the world, abortion, euthanasia. That isn't an exhaustive list. You might even be talking to another committed Christian and find it difficult to understand how teaching based upon Gospel values can be dismissed so readily because it doesn't fit with someone's personal world-view, Or perhaps you have done the same. You know the sort of thing: "Well the Church can't tell me what to do, it's my life." You could almost describe it as putting in a box marked "Irrelevant", almost like saying "render unto God... then leave it there"

In the passage where Jesus is being challenged about whether taxes should be paid to the authorities we are reminded that the situation, the priority, is the exact opposite, He ask whose head is on the coin with which taxes should be paid and replies with "Therefore render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's, and to God the things that which are God's".

We are reminded that each of us bears the image and likeness of God. We are called to use our lives to give glory to God in all that we do. We may not like what the Church has to say on how we go about our lives, but across the ages it has the work of passing on the message Jesus gave us. Not everyone found it comfortable in their day either.

He drew our attention to the hopes and also the challenges facing our diocese in an ever-changing world. In our recent parish questionnaire many recognised the dedication and commitment of Fr John as well as acknowledging the need to support him further. One of the suggestions for further development was to expand St Patrick's Liturgy Group which is small group of parishioners who help Fr John prepare and deliver liturgies throughout the year. The group is now in need of. No experience or previous knowledge is required, only a willingness to give up time to help, to share ideas and to assist our Parish Priest. Partnership Prayer

Risen Christ, from your abundant grace, pour out afresh your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese.
As we build on the deep foundations of faith
laid by the countless saints of these Northern lands,
by Aidan and Cuthbert, Hilda and Bede
may our Partnerships continue the mission of building your Kingdom on the earth:
to give living witness to your love,
and to your compassion and hope for our world.
We pray in trustful confidence that your power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen'

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus I believe that you are present in the most Holy Sacrament, I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you, never permit me to be separated from you. Amen'

A Prayer for Peace by Pope John Paul II

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of the victims of all wars and violence among individuals and nations.

Hear my voice, for it is the voice of all children who suffer and will suffer when people put their faith in weapons and war.

Hear my voice when I beg you to install into the hearts of all human beings the wisdom of peace, the strength of justice, and the joy of fellowship.

Hear my voice, for I speak for the multitudes in every country and in every period of history who do not want war are ready to walk the road
of peace.

Hear my voice and grant insight and strength so that we may always respond to hatred with love, to injustice with total dedication to justice, to need with the sharing of self, to war with peace.

O God, hear my voice and grant unto the world Your everlasting peace. Amen'
